DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1, 3-13 and 23, drawn to process of making uncrosslinked polymeric foams, classified in class 521, subclass 64.
- II. Claims 14-16, drawn to a polymeric emulsion, classified in class 522, subclass 84.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group II and Group I are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as a coating composition or an adhesive and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Edman on 1-6-2006 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1, 3-13. Claims 14-16 are withdrawn from further consideration. Claims 17-22 have been previously withdrawn from consideration and maintain withdrawn status.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1, 3-13 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for method of making polymeric foams based on polymerizable monofunctional acrylates, does not reasonably provide enablement for method of making uncrosslinked foams based on any other polymers that may be chosen from wide variety of available materials. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. It will require undue experimentation to determine which of millions of available polymerizable materials exhibit sufficient T<sub>g</sub> to permit the formation of a stable foam upon polymerizing the polymer according to the steps of the claimed invention.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see pages 5-7 of the response, filed 10-13-2005, with respect to claims 1, 3-13 and 23 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The obviousness rejection of claims 1-13 and 23 has been withdrawn.
